UPDATED PUBLIC NOTICE

POTENTIAL STATE REVOLVING FUND (SRF) LOAN APPLICANTS AND INTERESTED PARTIES

The Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation (TDEC) will hold a public meeting to present the Federal Fiscal Year (FFY) 2021/State Fiscal Year 2022 Draft Intended Use Plans (IUPs) for the Clean Water State Revolving Fund (CWSRF) and Drinking Water State Revolving Fund (DWSRF) capitalization grants and to receive public comments. To access these documents prior to the public meeting, please visit the SRF website. Access to the IUPs and priority ranking lists (PRL) are provided on the Clean Water SRF or Drinking Water SRF page.

CHANGE OF VENUE FOR PUBLIC MEETING

The public meeting will be conducted both in-person and through video-teleconference. To maintain a high level of service, TDEC has taken measures to protect employees, Tennessee citizens, and the regulated community we serve by providing multiple ways for full and transparent public participation.

The state's Intended Use Plans outline the intended use of Federal and State appropriations for the CWSRF and DWSRF. The IUPs include Priority Ranking Lists of eligible drinking water, stormwater and wastewater projects. Additional details on State use of set-asides monies for non-project activities, DWSRF and CWSRF loan program goals, and the criteria and methods used for distributing funds are included. The draft IUPs will be finalized after this 30-day public comment period.

CLEAN WATER (STORMWATER AND SEWER) STATE REVOLVING FUND LOAN PROGRAM:

The State of Tennessee's allotment of FFY 2021 CWSRF loan program dollars is $23,082,000. The State required match is 20% of the federal allocation or $4,616,400 to receive the full allotment. The EPA Capitalization Grant plus State match provides an expected $27,698,400 in funds available for CWSRF projects in SFY 2022.

DRINKING WATER STATE REVOLVING FUND LOAN PROGRAM:

The State of Tennessee's allotment of FFY 2021 DWSRF loan program dollars is $19,108,000. The State is required to provide a 20% match of federal funds or $3,821,600. The EPA Capitalization Grant plus State match will provide an expected $22,929,600 in funds available for the DWSRF program in SFY 2022.
